

April 22, 2010

Dear Families and Friends,

We would like to invite you to Diabetes Family Day on Saturday, May 15th, 2010 from 9 am to 3 pm. This camp is a FREE event being held at Willow Glen Elementary School in San Jose where your family can learn about several aspects of diabetes management. This is an event sponsored by the Diabetes Society, Animas Corporation, and Lifescan, with guest speakers from the Lucile Packard Diabetes Center.

Bring the whole family! The Diabetes Society Educational Camping Program will be running a Day Camp for kids with diabetes and their siblings without diabetes. All children must be potty trained (no diapers please) to attend day camp.

There will be several speakers talking about type 1 diabetes, including Darrell Wilson, MD will review what is going on with Stanford's current studies, and new developments in diabetes management.

Representatives from Animas will be available to show you the latest and the greatest technology used in diabetes management. Family members can have blood drawn at the event for Trialnet Research to determine if they are at risk of developing type 1 diabetes. Registration begins at 9:00 am and the program starts at 10:00 am - vendors will be available between 9:00 & 10:00 to display new products and answer questions.

This is a BYOI (Bring Your Own Insulin) event. Please bring your own insulin and testing supplies. We will have back up low blood sugar supplies on hand.

Lunch will be offered at this event by the Willow Glen Lions Club. Lunches for adults are $10 each, and lunches for children are $4 each. Proceeds benefit the Diabetes Society Camping Program, to sponsor children to attend 2010 camps. If you would like to purchase lunch at the event, please indicate on the enclosed Diabetes Family Day Registration Form. The purchase of an adult lunch includes a raffle ticket. Additional raffle tickets will be available for purchase at the event!

Directions and parking information, as well as schedule of activities and speakers will follow registration. To register, please fax the enclosed Diabetes Family Day Registration Form to 408-207-0162, or email it to camp@diabetessociety.org

Sincerely,

Kat Winant Carpenter
